Great sailing, great location, great hospitality!

“ I competed in the Inaugural National Championships at Howth Yacht Club in 2004. In terms of service, organisation and facilities Howth Yacht Club is as good as anything I’ve experienced at this level and the golf course ain’t bad either! ”

Russell Coutts

“ I feel fortunate to have had the pleasure of sailing a major E-22 regatta in Howth. I found the members very helpful and friendly. The facilities were able to handle a large fleet without any issues. The race committee did a good job in dealing with the wind shifts and running fair races. The hospitality and parties were great. I would recommend that anyone with a chance to attend do so! They will not be sorry!!! Cheers. ”

Dennis Connor

“ I sailed the Irish Nationals and Europeans at Howth in 2005. My crew and I not only experienced incredible hospitality but we also had help and support whenever we needed it. The sailing was an excellent mixed bag, from light to 25 knots, and the management of the races was also top class. I would encourage any Etchell Sailor considering doing the Worlds at Howth in 2010, to compete. ”

Gavin Gerrard

“ I definitely recommend a trip to Dublin for the Worlds in 2010. I’ve very much enjoyed racing in the local Etchells fleet over the last two years since moving from San Francisco. The race area provides a good combination of level one design windward leeward courses with enough shifts and tidal activity to keep you awake and active tactically. Combine that with a destination that you shouldn’t have any trouble encouraging family members to make a holiday around and I would definitely recommend including this on anyone’s 2010 sailing calendar. ”
